

the exemptions laws than appear in this bill. The particular language that's being struck deals with what's called necessities of life for himself or family. In the amendment in the other areas and I could between General File and Select File get you the specific areas that were changed, when we raised the amount it basically made this language obsolete. I could provide that to you and I'm sorry I don't have that section right now.

SENATOR MARVEL: Senator Cope.

SENATOR COPE: Mr. President and members. The question of Senator Fowler please.

SENATOR MARVEL: Senator Fowler.

SENATOR COPE: Senator Fowler, today I think there is a question of who is the head of the household, that is with both men and women working, husband and wife. Let me give you an example. A woman is a beauty operator. A man is a carpenter. Alright, who gets the tools, so to speak in this bill and how is it changed?

SENATOR FOWLER: Well, I can answer the second part of the question. That as far as people that are married, does not change the existing law. As to how when a bankruptcy is against the family, how they work which property they keep and which they dispose of, I can't answer that right now. But this law would in no way affect that practice.

SENATOR COPE: It would not affect it, in other words, it would not allow both members of the family since both have an occupation to retain both of their tools as you said.

SENATOR FOWLER: There is a certain...Ok the way the law is built now, there is a certain dollar amount that you are allowed to keep. Anything in excess of that can be attached or sold or whatever. Now how a family resolves which tools to keep, I do not know. This law does not however it is being done now, is the way it would continue to be done.

SENATOR COPE: Thank you.

SENATOR MARVEL: Senator Dworak. Are there any other discussion on the advancement of LB 60? Hearing none, the motion is to advance LB 60 to E & R for Review. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no.

CLERK: Senator Marvel voting aye.

SENATOR MARVEL: Record.

CLERK: 28 ayes, 0 nays.

SENATOR MARVEL: Motion carried. The bill is advanced to E & R for Review. Next bill LB 179. Chair recognizes Senator Chambers.

CLERK: Read LB 179.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman and members of the Legislature. This bill was heard by the Health and Welfare Committee and it was advanced without a dissenting vote which is one of the requirements to get on this list. What the bill does is
